

FOOD SERVICES

Enjoy our freshly prepared meals in the perfect setting – historic Arrah Wanna Lodge. Our excellent kitchen staff will strive to make your stay at Arrah Wanna an enjoyable one. Our coffeepot is always on, and our own Arrah Wanna blend is referred to as the best coffee on the mountain. Fresh baked goods, seasonal fruits, and an excellent tea selection will keep your adults coming back for more. Others will appreciate the soda fountain and hot chocolate. The fellowship provided around our dining tables makes camp the great community building resource that it is!

Vegetarian and special dietary needs are not a problem for our staff, however advance notice and specific numbers are required to allow us to properly prepare for those needs.

All meal counts must be final two weeks (14 days) prior to your retreat to allow for food ordering (Arrah Wanna will allow for a 10% overage).

Meal prices are as follows:

Standard meal packages are as follows:

- | | |
|-------------------------|------------------------------|
| Two nights / four meals | Three nights / seven meals |
| Four nights / ten meals | Five nights / thirteen meals |

Meal packages can be upgraded to meet your group's needs. Upgrades available are based upon your group's check-in and check-out times. (Additional fees, outside of the meal costs, may apply.)

A comprehensive snack menu is available if you are interested in purchasing snacks for your group. Prices range from 50 cents—$3.50 per person, and must be ordered at least two weeks (14 days) in advance. Snacks are not included in the meal packages.

Meal service times are based upon the lodging facilities that you are using. These times are outlined specifically in our Guest Reservation Contract.

Soda is available during lunches and dinners only. Soda is also available at snack time if it is being purchased as part of that snack.
